

Pre-College Academic Resources

Do you have questions about your course? Are you looking for feedback on your writing? Would additional research support be helpful? As a Brown Pre-College student, you have access to multiple types of academic resources. Note that you should always use your Brown.edu email address when making an appointment to utilize any of the resources below.

Contact Your Instructor

If you have a question or a concern about your course, your instructor can help. You can contact them via your Brown.edu email address or via Canvas if your course uses Canvas. You can also speak with your instructor before or after class.

Office Hours

Office hours are a regular part of learning in universities. During office hours, you can discuss course content and assignments, ask questions to expand your learning and have the opportunity to build a relationship with your instructor. You will likely find information about your instructor's office hours in the syllabus.

Writing Center

You can make an appointment to request feedback on a writing assignment. Writing Center support is available at all stages of the writing process and in multiple disciplines. Please follow the link here for details and an appointment request form.

Language Support

Brown offers support to students whose primary language is not English. Individual appointments for focused feedback on multiple types of academic tasks are available. To find out more and to make an appointment, please follow the link here.

Brown Libraries

The Brown Libraries offer books, magazines and newspapers, films, primary sources, and academic journals, among many other resources. Librarians are available to answer questions and consult on your research. Please follow the link here for more information about library resources and consultation services.

Program Advisors

Brown Pre-College Program Advisors are available to help you with general questions or concerns. They can be reached by phone at (401) 863-7900, by email at precollege@brown.edu, or inside the Campus Center from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday-Friday.

BeU Lounge

The BeU Lounge provides drop-in office hours and programming for all pre-college students regardless of race, gender or national origin with a focus on the experiences of first generation-to-college students, students from diverse backgrounds, students from low-income backgrounds, LGBTQI+ students and students enrolled in the Providence Public School District or connected to a Pre-College Partner Organization. During your time on campus, if you are seeking support or have questions or concerns related to your experience, please come see us during office hours: 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Monday to Friday at Page-Robinson Hall, Room 411. You can also email Joi-Danelle Whitehead, Assistant Dean for Equity Initiatives and University K-12 Engagement at joi-danelle.whitehead@brown.edu to schedule a time to meet.
